What is Presenting professionally - Advanced

This training assumes a basic level of presenting and build upon that. That is why this training is suitable for experienced people looking for making more impact, refinement, improvement in delivery aspects. It is a 2-day training where we focus on the HOW and not so much on the WHAT, in other words we are looking at the different aspects of delivering a talk. Think authenticity, energy, use of voice, attitude, non-verbal etc. There will be a lot of practice and attention for personal feedback, guidance and learning from each other.

Who should attend Presenting professionally - Advanced

For people who want to present with purpose and inspiration, to build and improve their presentation skills and podium presence. This is a training for an advanced level, for which we assume you are familiar with the basis of presenting and we assume you have experience with presenting.

For example:

- You have been asked to speak in front of a big audience.
- You have been asked for an interview, podcast or webinar.
- You have to give an important presentation for a client, a board, your team or department.

Prerequisites

Experience and basic understanding of presenting is required (example: attended Training Presenting Professionally - Fundamentals at Capgemini Academy).

It is practical to have a presentation (does not have to be finished). Please don't learn it by heart! Bullet points are okay.

Objectives

Awareness of what's involved in delivering a talk (online and offline)

Build upon and improve presentation skills

Work on self confidence and daring to own the stage

Awareness how to tell your story with more impact
